This extremely flexible home fosters both comfort and formality for today's family on the go. The impressive two story foyer separates the spacious study and formal dining room. The two story great room, tucked in the back of the home is functional yet inviting with a large media center wall and first and second story windows along the back. The kitchen is adorned with today's necessary conveniences including a generous center island and oversized walk-in pantry. From upstairs you can enjoy the view of the two story great room, or convert that space into a multipurpose loft. The three family bedrooms are perfectly sized for a growing family and share a spacious hall bath. The master suite is breathtaking as you enter the double doors into it's generous space. The dazzling master bath, also through double doors, offers his and her closets, dual sinks, a soaking tub and separate shower, and private lavatory. Adding to the functionality of the home is the convenient second story laundry room.
